Flood Group Says Cleo Was "Dry" One

Pumping stations, canals, and levees of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District got their first "trial by hurricane" this week.

But ironically Cleo was a comparatively "dry" hurricane and did not provide a real test of Flood Control facilities, according to Riley S. Miles of Kissimmee, Chairman of the District's Governing Board.

No hurricane ever before has tested the FCD works, since the start of construction of the 18-county system in 1950, Miles explained. In 1960, Hurricane Donna skirted the District and crossed its northern end near Orlando, but at that time no FCD facilities had been built in Donna's path.

Ready for the worst this time and anticipating torrential rainfall, the FCD's eleven pumping stations went into action 24 hours in advance of Cleo. They pumped levels of water in canals down several feet, said Ed Dail, Executive Director. The levels were kept down during the hurricane.

"But we had no reports of flooding, even from areas that should have been flooded if we had received the usual 10 to 14 inches of rainfall that accompany most hurricanes," Dail said.

A Well Deserved Bouquet

(An Editorial)

Another hurricane is history and the Florida Power and Light Company came through it with flying colors. Again that group of intrepid workmen—the linemen and their associates—have performed a miraculous job. Electric power in the Everglades section of Palm Beach county was interrupted, of course, but inconvenience was at a minimum considering the high velocity of the winds thrust upon us by Hurricane Cleo.

The damaging winds came through this section of the county before the noon hour Thursday of last week and along with the wind went the electric service when great pine trees fell across the lines. Not to be downed by the antics of nature, workmen were on the downed lines almost before Cleo was out of sight. Service was restored to the Belle Glade area by four o'clock in the afternoon and at Pahokee, in most places just a few hours later. Canal Point was harder hit and lines coming in were down in more places, and it took until noon Friday to get electricity back to the homes and business houses.

Another well deserved bouquet! That's what goes the way of Florida Power and Light Company. To Glades Manager Curtis Chase and District Manager Dick Hill in West Palm Beach, we offer sincere congratulations for a job well done. To each and every workman under these two outstanding Power company officials, we say EXCELLENT WORK FELLOWS!

Through the years the State Road Department has kept the driveways patched and the complete retread job will put them in first class condition.

Training Is Still Available To Vets

L. V. McClelland, Local Veterans Service Officer, stated today that the Korean Conflict Veterans who, after continuous Military service, have been discharged to civilian life within the last three years are reminded that they have one semester left, for education and training under the Korean G. I. Bill.

Congress has established Jan. 31, 1965 as the termination date for the readjustment program of education and training for Korean veterans. This deadline applies to both the Korean veterans already embarked on their courses of study and to those who are about to start classes now for summer work, or in September for the fall semester. The Veteran, May, of course, continue in school after that date but they will no longer receive an allowance from the V. A. each month to meet part of their training and living expenses, McClelland said.

McClelland pointed out that those veterans who have failed to begin their Korean GI Bill of Education or Training within three years after their discharge or separation from their service have already exhausted their Eligibility.

Acting Director Of Safety Named

A new name for an old job—that's what the Pahokee council gave the Police Chief's position in Pahokee Monday night. The charter says that the Chief of Police or Marshal shall be elected by the voters of the incorporated City of Pahokee.

Several weeks ago the duly elected Police Chief resigned leaving the city without a Chief and no way to elect one until the next regular City election. Some fast thinking on the part of someone brought up the idea of appointing a Public Safety Director with the same duties as chief. That's what the council did Monday night. They appointed a public Safety Director.

Guy Wood of the police force, who had been acting in the chief's place since his resignation, was named Acting Public Safety Director with the powers and duties heretofore designated to the Chief of Police.

The council has a group of applications for the job and officials of the city say that a permanent appointment will be made in a couple of weeks. Police Commissioner Harry B. Elarbee said he had narrowed the list of applicants down to four and that he would make his recommendation the night of Monday, Sept. 14.

Talisman Leases 1280 A. State Land

Bringing their company holdings to 32,000 acres of land south of Lake Okeechobee, the Talisman Corporation on Tuesday of this week leased 1280 acres from the state at a price of $13.65 per acre. The concern was also given five year option for renewal.

The 1280 acre tract leased Tuesday is adjacent to present holdings of the concern with headquarters about 14 miles south of here along Highway 27.

There were ten concerns bidding on the lease of the property located south of Lake Okeechobee in what is known as the "cold land" area away from the lake itself.

Eugene Pawley, vice president of the sugar concern, is said to have handled negotiations for the lease that calls for the payment of $13.65 per acre on the first part of the lease that extends for four years.

Lions Hear Story Of '64 Blue Devils

The program of the Pahokee Lions Club differed somewhat from the usual, in that the members took part in a discussion with the Pahokee Football Staff, Coaches Webb Fell, Martin Ralph and Donald Thompson.

At the noon meeting Tuesday the Lions learned that their team, though lacking in returning lettermen, is "a young and speedy group" that will put up a "tough defense" there will be six seniors returning to the squad. Clewiston Lion, Bob Adams was welcomed as a guest.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

States and stages of human progress will be explored in the Bible Lesson on "Man" at all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Bible selections will include the following from Romans (ch. 12): "Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include these lines (p. 296): "Progress is born of experience. It is the ripening of mortal man, through which the mortal is dropped for the immortal. Either here or hereafter, suffering or Science must destroy all illusions regarding life and mind, and regenerate material sense and self. The old man with his deeds must be put off."

The first Sunday of September the First Baptist Church of Pahokee will institute a time change for the evening services. The Worship Service will be at 6:00 followed by the Baptist Training Union. This schedule was used last fall and winter and proved very helpful for many of the people; and it was felt that this would be the best order for another year.

Let Your Money Earn 4 1/2% Payable Semi-Annually

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{4}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{4}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you want automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace needs money—money for military strength and for peace. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

Co. Civil Defense Was State Hdqtrs

As Hurricane Cleo approached Florida, Governor Farris Bryant designated the Palm Beach County Civil Defense Emergency Operating Center as State Disaster Headquarters and ordered the State Civil Defense Director and staff to the Center. Col. H. W. Tarkington and his staff reported for duty Wednesday morning, August 26, and remained until Friday morning when they returned to Jacksonville.

The Palm Beach County Emergency Operating Center was selected by Governor Bryant due to its safety for operations under all conditions and to its communications capability to handle all messages over many frequencies to all parts of the State and Nation. Constant communications were established with all affected counties. Local power was off, but due to the Center's emergency generator, Civil Defense was able to stay on the air with all the power needed.

Emergency bedding was used during the storm, and meals were cooked in the electric kitchen.

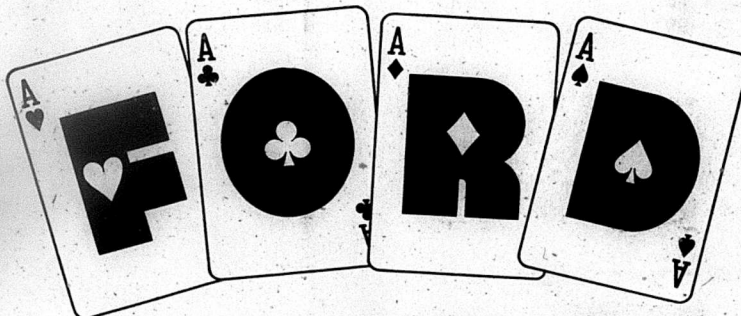

The Director of Palm Beach County Civil Defense is grateful to all forty municipal directors in Palm Beach County for their splendid cooperation before, during, and after Hurricane Cleo. It was due to them that the losses in their areas were held to a minimum. The municipal directors gave their public all current information of the progress of the storm and held all their city employees on a standby basis.
